Alison Freehling - 2015 AKC Sportsmanship Award Recipient

My involvement with Norwich Terriers began in August 1979 when we brought home a jaunty, 4-year-old proven brood bitch named Grasmere Heather from Constance Larrabee's well-known King's Prevention kennel. My husband Bill and I had only wanted a family pet, but Mrs. Larrabee's contract stipulated that Heather be bred. Since I was clueless---and also skittish---about whelping, I luckily found an experienced Norwich breeder (John Barton) in the Baltimore area who agreed to help. Heather made his job easy by free-whelping five healthy puppies in May 1981. My two children and I really enjoyed raising the litter---and so began my unintended 3-decades odyssey in the Norwich world.

Bill and I joined the NNTC in 1983. We never expected to be active members, but when we were asked to serve as NNTC Trophy co-Chairs in the late 1980s, we agreed. Ditto when I was asked to be AKC Gazette Norwich breed columnist (@1992-1998), a NNTC Governor (late 1990s-early 2000s) and, first, co-editor (1996-1998) and then editor of The Norwich & Norfolk News (1998-2008). Following NNTC division and establishment of the NTCA in 2009, I continued as editor of The Norwich Terrier News until my retirement in Fall 2014. I also was a Director on the first NTCA Board (2009-2013). I would never have imagined when we bought our first Norwich from the News' founding editor in 1979 that one day I would follow in Mrs. Larrabee's footsteps---much less remain as News' editor for 18 years! Life takes many unexpected twists and turns...I have enjoyed all aspects of my involvement with the charming Norwich breed and with both breed clubs over the past 30 years.

When NTCA President Jane Schubart called to inform me about the annual AKC Sportsmanship Award, I told her I did not feel deserving of such recognition by the NTCA, but I would like to thank the NTCA Board members who voted to give me this year's AKC Sportsmanship Award.
