THE NORWICH TERRIER

BY

R.C. BAYLDON

A Truly Sporting and Attractive Little Dog That Really Looks Like a Worker

Of the few terriers now left to us that really look like good workers, the Norwich is a prominent example; and whenever one thinks of the farmer’s description of “William The Conqueror” in HANDLEY CROSS ....... “All teeth and hair, like a rat-catcher’s dog”, it conjurs up something similar. But in no derogatory sense--far from it, but rather the image of an ultravarmint, stout, rough-and-tumble, little terrier.

Its breeders aim at a working terrier, and at the same time a neat little dog whose symetry is thoroughly pleasing to the eye. Such an ideal has been sought by the breeders of other kinds of terriers in the past, but gradual “improvements” made their appearance in the form of exaggerations and profuse, soft coats well-adated to the ubiquitous barbering. Hence, the Norwich Terrier has so far escaped the extremist’s art — and, with a minimum of tidying-up, still appear AU NATUREL in the show ring.
THE STANDARD OF PERFECTION
1974

As approved by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

HEAD. Skull wide, slightly rounded with good width between the ears. Muzzle strong but not long or heavy, with slightly “foxy” appearance. Length about one-third less than the measurement from the occiput to the bottom of the stop, which should be well defined.

Faults. A long narrow head; over square muzzle; highly rounded dome.

EARS. Pricked or drop. If pricked, small, pointed, erect and set well apart. If dropped, neat, small, with break just above the skull line, front edge close to cheek, and not falling lower than the outer corner of the eye.

Faults. Oversize; poor carriage.

EYES. Very bright, dark and keen. Full of expression.

Faults. Light or protruding eyes.

JAW. Clean, strong, tight lipped, with strong, large, closely-fitting teeth; scissors bite.

Faults. A mouth over- or undershot.

NECK. Short and strong, well set on clean shoulders.

BODY. Moderately short, compact and deep with level topline; ribs well sprung.

Faults. Long weak back, loaded shoulders.

LEGS. Short and powerful and as straight as is consistent with the short legs for which we aim. Sound bone, round feet, thick pads.

Faults. Out at elbow, badly bowed, knuckled over. Too light in bone.

QUARTERS. Strong rounded, with great powers of propulsion.

Faults. Cow hocks.

TAIL. Medium docked, carriage not excessively gay.

COLOR. All shades of red, wheaten, black and tan or grizzle. White markings on chest, though allowable, are not desirable.

Faults. White markings elsewhere or to any great extent on the chest.

COAT. As hard and wiry as possible, lying close to the body, with a definite undercoat. Top coat absolutely straight; in full coat longer and rougher forming almost a mane on shoulders and neck. Hair on head, ears and muzzle, except for slight eyebrows and slight whiskers, is absolutely short and smooth. These dogs should be shown with as nearly a natural coat as possible. A minimum of tidying is permissible but excessive trimming, shaping and clipping shall be heavily penalized by the judge.

Faults. Silky or curly coat.

WEIGHT. Ideal, 11 to 12 lbs.

HEIGHT. Ideal, 10 inches at the withers.

GENERAL APPEARANCE. A small, low, rugged terrier, tremendously active. A perfect demon yet not quarrelsome and of a lovable disposition, and a very hardy constitution. Honorable scars from fair wear and tear shall not count against.

DISQUALIFICATIONS. Cropped ears shall disqualify.

HISTORY

Norwich Terriers were bred in Cambridge and Norfolk by horsemen, from Hunt Terriers of all breeds crossed with Native Terriers, in order to develop their ratting and bolting abilities.

Among the most influential early breeders were Mr. Frank “Roughrider” Jones of Norwich and Market Harborough, Mr. R.J. Read of Hatton Hall, Norwich, who also used “Podge” Low’s dogs, and Jodrell Hopkins, whose Trumpington Strain was started by “Doggy” Lawrence in 1870 in Cambridge with small Irish and Yorkshire Terriers. The preferred color always has been red or black and tan.
